Office of Student Activities

- Mary Coonley, Director

- Robyn Barthel, Assistant Director for RSOs

- Rosa Edwards, Office Manager

- Laura Keath, Graduate Assistant for RSOs

Benefits of Being an RSO

- Ability to reserve space on campus

- Ability to apply for ASG funds

  - For special events/programs, conference registration, administrative costs

- Access to resources to help RSO succeed

  - Personal consultations

  - Officer Development Series

- Participation opportunities at events such as Razorbash and Info Fairs

Where to Find Resources and Forms

- Go to osa.uark.edu

- Click RSOs

- "Resources for Advisors" sidebar - general advisor info

- "Resources for Students and Officers"

  - Officer Handbook, ASG Funding Guide, Event Planning Workbook

  - All forms

- "Advisor Development Series" sidebar

  - Links to past presentations

  - Information about upcoming sessions

Advisor Roles

Important RSO Info

- Officer Orientation - 2 officers must attend (next available session is September 19 at 11 am)

- Funding Informational Meetings - first step for those interested in applying for ASG funds; held in October

- Please encourage students to attend Officer Development Series - next one is Sept. 22 from 12:30-1:30 pm

Goals for RSO Area

- Increase participation in Officer Development Series

  - More topics to be offered

  - Incentives for participation / attendance

- Make registration and other processes more accessible for students

  - OSA website reorganization

  - Shift to streamlined online registration system

Goals for RSO Area

- Emphasis on "Students First" campaign as it relates to advisors

- Risk management information for advisors

Advisor Development Series

"Incorporating 'Students First' into Your Advising Style"

Wednesday, Sept. 28

12:30-1:30 pm

ARKU 510-511

Office of Student Activities

ARKU A665

www.OSA.uark.edu

(479) 575-5255

Robyn Barthel, Asst. Director for RSOs

rbarthel@uark.edu